

KNOW MORE about prop feeding your baby

Whilst feeding your baby with a bottle, you must always hold the bottle and your baby during the feed.

If your baby's bottle is propped up by something, your baby could choke, suffocate or die.

Local babies have died this way.

Keeping babies safer in the Black Country designed and developed by Dudley Council Public Health endorsed by Black Country CDOP

For more information go to <https://www.nct.org.uk/>

